Part X, Line 2: GTL is exempt from income taxes under Internal Revenue

Code Section 501(c)(3). U.S. generally accepted accounting principles provide detailed guidance for the financial statement recognition, measurement and disclosure of uncertain tax positions recognized in an organization's financial statements. U.S. generally accepted accounting principles require an entity to recognize the financial statement impact of a tax position when it is more likely than not that the position will be sustained upon examination by a tax authority.

These determinations have been reviewed according to guidance in U.S. generally accepted accounting principles related to accounting for uncertainty in income taxes. As of June 30, 2011, GTL had no uncertain tax positions that qualify for either recognition or disclosure in the financial statements. Upon the filing date of GTL's 2010 federal and state tax returns, such returns for the tax year 2007 and prior are no longer subject to potential examination by respective authorities.

Africa to enable them to receive post-secondary education in their own country. Also, the Organization encourages a cross-cultural exchange of information and ideas between countries.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11: A draft copy of the Federal Form 990 is provided to all members of the Board of Directors for a designated period of review. Comments and suggested changes are gathered by the Executive Director and when deemed appropriate are reflected in the final Federal Form 990 filed electronically with the Internal Revenue Service.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12: GTL's programs mainly benefit girls in East Africa, and GTL's board members are exclusively based in the United States without having business interests in East Africa. For that reason, conflicts of interest are very unlikely ever to arise for board members, and continual monitoring for conflicts is not necessary. However, we do ask board members to declare at each Annual Meeting any conflicts of interest that they might have.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15: The compensation of the Executive Director is reviewed annually in July/August as part of the overall evaluation process. The evaluation is conducted by the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors. Compensation of equivalent NGO positions are reviewed by the Executive Committee and a salary proposal is presented to the Executive Director.
